

Change of Ownership Form

The new owner details form will need to be completed by the proposed new owner of the services. All the costs and minimum terms associated to all services and subscriptions will remain the responsibility of the existing owner. On completion of the change of ownership form, all minimum terms, services and subscriptions will be transferred to a new billing account in the name of the new owner. Once the change of ownership has taken place all services and subscriptions will be the responsibility of the new account owner. The change of ownership cannot take place, until both section a. and b. of the change of ownership form has been signed and completed by both parties.

This form must be completed in full, signed and returned to support@au.voipcloud.online, from the current account owner.
